Verb stems

- Every verb has a stem followed by an ending.
- The stem tells the verb's meaning.
- An infinitive ending doesn't name a subject.

Conjugating the verb

- To give the verb a subject, you conjugate it.
- To conjugate a regular -ar verb in the present tense, drop the -ar ending of the infinitive and add these endings.
- Each ending goes with a particular subject.

cantar

yo canto

nosotros(as) cantamos

tú cantas

vosotros(as) cantáis

Ud., él, ella canta

Uds., ellos, ellas cantan

Conjugating the verb

- To give the verb a subject, you conjugate it.
- To conjugate a regular -ar verb in the present tense, drop the -ar ending of the infinitive and add these endings.
- Each ending goes with a particular subject.

¿ Cantan ustedes mucho?	No, casi nunca cantamos .
Do you sing a lot?	No, we hardly ever sing.

Subject pronouns

- Since the ending of the verb usually tells the subject, the subject pronoun is normally left out.
- Use subject pronouns to add emphasis, or when it wouldn't otherwise be clear who the subject is.

¿Patinan ustedes mucho? Ellos patinan. Yo nunca patino.

Do you skate a lot?

They skate. I never skate.
